International Arrivals— Intercity Bus

Прибуття | Arrivals

I am getting off the bus and entering the Terminal D

If I am on the first floor of the Terminal D, I can get to the second floor by stairs, escalator or lift

If I get from the plane to the Terminal D via the passenger boarding bridge, I enter the second floor directly

I am on the second floor of the Terminal in the arrival area

I am going to pass passport control

I am waiting calmly

The queue can be very long

If I feel unwell, I inform the airport staff about it

If I can, I wait for my turn

I am giving my passport to the passport control officer

The passport control officer can look at my face closely

I am calm

I have to look into the camera when asked

This is a standard procedure

When the passport control officer gives me my documents, I take them and leave the passport control area

The check is over, I am in Ukraine

If I have checked-in bags, I go to baggage claim area

I can take my baggage back on the first floor

I am going down there by stairs, escalator or lift

I am in the baggage claim area

The name of my flight and the number of the baggage carousel are on the information board

I am looking for the carousel number for my flight and waiting for my baggage

I am picking up my baggage

I am leaving the baggage claim area

I am entering the customs control area

If I have nothing to declare, I go through the green channel

If I have something to declare, I go through the red channel

I am walking down to the doors

The doors are opening automatically

I'm in the arrival area at the airport exit

There are ticket offices for intercity buses to my right, I am going to the ticket office to choose the voyage I need and buy a ticket

I am leaving the airport

I am outside

There is a bus stop ahead of me, I am looking for a bus I need

When I find it, I show my ticket and get on

I will soon arrive at my destination
